

Sharpen your story with edgy facts.

Every storyteller and creator knows what amount of time it takes to find material for their stories. Online search and real world digging are tedious jobs, especially when a tight deadline is nagging your back. And still, you want to find the right sources to back up your story.

Factlab is your online resource for finding facts and statistics. A world of facts at your fingertips. Facts that you can rely on, knowing that they are valid and up to date. Speed up your research with Factlab, and build trust among your community.

Facts for storytellers and creators.

As a modern storyteller, you will enjoy the convenience of one easy-to-use interface for millions of facts. You will also get the added benefit of being able to compare facts from different sources to make a better analysis. In these times of public skepticism towards media, using trusted facts is a way to strengthen your authority.

Factlab is always free to use. In addition, professionals and organizations can register for premium features. With an API connection you can improve your story with interactive diagrams and automatic links to original sources. With custom theming of colors and style, the facts seamlessly fit your editorial context.

How it works.

1.

Use free text search, or choose your topic.

2.

Analyze and compare your facts.

3.

Save your work, or share with others.

4.

Publish and manage your results.

Main topics.

Politics

Crime

Information technology

People

Infrastructure

Education

Provisions

Labour market

Culture

Economics

Geography

Environment

Sports

Health

Benefits.

Speed up your research

With Factlab, you have a world of accurate knowledge at your fingertips.

Build trust

Using source-referenced facts is a good way of strengthening the authority with your community.

Enrich your story

Enrich your posts with colorful diagrams that links to the original source.

“With Factlab, your stories will always be accurate and contemporary”

Get your facts straight.

Factlab is a unique big data hub, with facts from referred sources. In an intuitive interface, users can quickly search, filter and compare relevant facts from all over the world. Our facts come directly from the source, clean from any interpretation and agenda. Just as facts should be. Straight facts only.

Factlab is proud to be independent, neutral and transparent. We present the facts, you draw the conclusions. By empowering people with unbiased facts, everyone gets an opportunity to shape their view of the world on valid grounds. This is how we support our vision of creating a more knowledgeable world.

